

Transnational Mobility in Bachelor and Master Programmes

Transcultural German Studies MA

Triple degree programme of

Åbo Academy University (Turku, Finland) & Pázmány Péter Catholic University (Budapest, Hungary) & Technische Universität Dresden (Germany);

Programme Board: Prof. Dr. Dagmar Neuendorff (Turku), Prof. Dr. Walter Schmitz (Dresden), Prof. Dr. Imre Szigeti (Budapest)

Contact: imros@btk.ppke.hu or ndl-Sekretariat@mailbox.tu-dresden.de or dagmar.neuendorff@abo.fi

General information

Field of study: Humanities/ Philology

ECTS: 120 credits in 4 semester

Number of intake of students per year: 25 students – every student spends one semester at one of the partner universities in the 2nd and the 3rd semester

Partners: Department of German Studies at Åbo Academy University (Turku, Finland), Department of German Philology at Pázmány Péter Catholic University (Budapest, Hungary), Department of German Studies at Technische Universität Dresden (Dresden, Germany)

In one sentence

The programme allows students to examine and experience the transcultural aspects of German Studies using mobility of both students and professors and ends up in the degrees of the participating universities (i.e. three degrees based on the common scientific background and mutual recognition of studies).

Strengths:

1. interdisciplinary
2. praxis-oriented
3. intercultural exchange
4. new perspectives for philological studies

Structure & Mobility

Semester 1	Semester 2	Semester 3	Semester 4
Students from Dresden
Dresden	Turku	Budapest	Dresden
Basics	Specialized knowledge	Transnational Research of Culture	Master thesis
Students from Budapest
Budapest	Turku	Dresden	Budapest
Basics	Specialized knowledge	Applied Cultural Studies	Master thesis
Students from Turku
Turku	Budapest	Dresden	Turku
Basics	Transnational Research of Culture	Applied Cultural Studies	Master thesis

Take Home Message

The best things come in threes: Joint Master's Program in German Studies in Finland, Germany and Hungary.